

November 10th 2006

Dear Customer and Distributor:

This letter confirms to your company that Displaytech is discontinuing the manufacture of the LightView™ LV201-D Display Series model number LDM-0201-D1. The last time buy for this product is February 10th 2007 and the last time shipment for this product is May 10th 2007.

Any return claims must be made under Displaytech's current Return Material Authorization ("RMA") procedures. The applicable warranty period for making any return claims for discontinued products subject to this notice will be no later than twelve (12) months following delivery of the discontinued products. Displaytech will accept all valid discontinued product warranty claims as replacement if LDM-0201-D1 can still be delivered from Displaytech's remaining inventory.

As part of Displaytech's ongoing effort to insure the highest levels of customer support, we encourage you to begin a migration plan as soon as possible to the LightView™ LV201-E Display Series model number LDM-0201-E3, which is our suggested replacement product.

On behalf of Displaytech, we appreciate your understanding. We stand ready to assist you in placing your company's final orders, or in providing any product information you require to make this a smooth transition. If you have any questions, please feel free to contact us.

Sincerely,

Satoko Aikawa (E-Mail: satoko@displaytech.com)
